

1. Conduct engineering-related academic and technical activities between Taiwan and Russia.
2. Promote industrial technology cooperation, development and integration between Taiwan and Russia.
3. Promote research and development of engineering technology and industry.
4. Cultivate engineering and technology-related competent people and publish books and journals.
5. Strengthen abilities and improve skills of engineering personnel and engineering scholars to integrate with international standards.
6. Protect the rights of engineering personnel and engineering scholars.
7. Offer activities and provide services consistent with the purpose of TCIAE.