In 2023, we navigated a year teeming with challenges but also interspersed with unforgettable moments of triumph and beauty. Particularly notable was the presence of all 2022 Tang Prize laureates in Taipei to receive the awards and deliver inspiring lectures. The Tang Prize Foundation especially created this annual video to invite everyone to relive these precious times with us. We would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to all our friends for accompanying us throughout this remarkable journey. The support and devotion you've shown us weaved so many memorable episodes during the year gone by. As we eagerly await the announcement of the 2024 laureates and look forward to the grandeur of the 6th Tang Prize Award Ceremony, let us raise our glasses to a new year filled with boundless joy. May the Year of the Dragon be one where every prayer granted and every wish fulfilled.
